

Isochronous ratios introduced by participant by condition (normalized)

Negative values mean a reduction of isochrony from stimulus to response

